Coastal Excursion with The Bay Foundation

Value: Priceless

Four guests will join the marine biologists of The Bay Foundation for a three-hour tour, a three hour tour... aboard the Research Vessel Xenarcha. This trip is like no other. You'll experience the beauty and rich natural history of the Palos Verdes Peninsula and Santa Monica Bay. Harvest kelp with TBF, and feed the endangered abalone in our aquaculture facility. The RV Xenarcha has made more than 600 voyages supporting The Bay Foundation's SCUBA divers. Did you ever want to be a marine biologist? Here's your chance!

Refreshments and light fare provided. Snorkeling and other water experiences tailored to fit.

Completed in 2020, is a well-appointed launching pad for your next Bend adventure. It is in our newest neighborhood, Trailhead, and is just steps from the main resort and its amenities, world class golf course designed by award winning designer, David McLay Kidd, trails in the Deschutes National Forest, five minutes from downtown Bend and a 20-minute drive to Mt. Bachelor.

The main house is a mountain contemporary 4 king bedroom home with all en-suite bathrooms, Smart TVs, luxurious mattresses and bedding, designed with a fresh and modern aesthetic, quality design and materials. Two are master suites with double vanities. More amenities await downstairs including a covered patio and yard. An 8-person private hot tub, agas fire pit with Adirondack chairs and bench provides a gathering spot for après ski/golf/adventure. In addition, the home's Luxury Studio Loft which houses its fifth bedroom and 6th bathroom is its own pied-a-terre with a full second kitchen, a large bathroom with separate water closet, its own deck.

Palm Spring Desert Oasis

Duration: 3 nights – Subject to availability
Value: $3,100

Originally built in 1956, this quiet and visually uncomplicated home has been totally reinvented with an expanded open floor plan and new finishes throughout. This 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom house is located in Sunrise Park, in Central Palm Springs, within close proximity to downtown shopping and restaurants.

Expansive San Jacinto Mountain views can be enjoyed directly from floor-to-ceiling living room windows as well as from the pool area where you can watch the sun set behind them. Pristine white porcelain and glass polished floors offer a stark contrast to the desert landscape surrounding the house. The kitchen is large with island seating that opens directly to a saltwater pool and private hot tub. Enjoy sun longer in the day around the pool as the property is situated away from the base of the mountain. Whether you're getting away to the desert to write, catch up on your reading, meditate or enjoy the company of close friends, this is the ultimate desert oasis.
